Organic Rosé

2024

Wine of Spain

We are increasingly aware of climate change and the need for mitigation. Deforestation is a threat to both people and planet. This is why we have decided to support the UN World Restoration Flagship project Trees for the future.

Pale Pink

Strawberry
Rose petals

Right acidity
Minerality

A lovely pale pink color, with aromas of strawberry and rose petals, nice finish, right acidity and minerality on the palate.
