DO Ribera del Duero

A storyteller, Oráculo, from whose lips the wine gods speak.... in its bosom lays the ancient history of 80 year old vines. Tinta del País vines, touched by good fortune, are pure joy for your senses. Perched on one of the highest points of Ribera del Duero, their grapes tell the story of master oenologists. Oráculo is the one and only truth.

Dense, layered & succulent
Velvety tannins, intense extract
A long lingering finish

Deep ruby red, with intense aromas reminiscent of ripe black cherries, delicate toasted oak, cigar box, savoury game, tobacco and Asian spices. On the palate is dense, layered and succulent. This wine is well balanced with lots of soft velvety tannins, intense extract, and it has a long lingering finish.
